Call for Posters

An open poster session will be held in conjunction with a social hour the evening of Tuesday, February 8, 2005 from 6:00-7:30 pm in the lobby of the Days Hotel and Conference Center at Dulles. Posters are invited that address current aspects of linking hydrology and ecological response, including:

- issues and information needs
- policy and regulation
- new methods to characterize hydrologic alteration
- innovative approaches to assessing changes in stream biota
- case studies linking hydrology and ecology
- models to support decision-making

Posters should fit within a 4' x 4' space, but accommodations can be made for a few posters wider than 4'. Abstracts and .pdf images of all posters will be published in the conference proceedings.

Please submit abstracts in MS Word format by email no later than January 28, 2005 to:
